In a game which was slow despite the closeness of the score, and the sensational fielding that was put on during the contest, Richmond took the Truckers into camp by the score of 1 to 0.

Quinn and Hallman were on the slab for their respective teams and honors were about even, for it was not the Portsmouth slabbers' fault that the victory went to the locals. Lucky Jack Quinn was in fine form and fettle and he mixed 'em up with only two singles being allowed the vegetable gatherers. He walked only one man and made three of the Truckers carve huge hunks out of the ozone.

Hallman was all to the good, and five of Richmond's six hits were decidedly of the scratchy variety, most of them being beat-out infield hits. "Rube" walked two Lawmakers, hit one and struck out three. The only run of the game was unearned.

Several times fast field work characterized the play of both teams. In the third inning Toner captured Titman's foul over near the bleachers after a hard run. It was a beautiful bit of work and was heartily applauded.

In the same inning Guiheen made a beautiful stop of Quinn's hot ground hit over second, which was the star play of the game. The next inning the Truckers second sacker made a star stop of Sieber's grounder, throwing the Doctor down.

Lawrence, the Lilliputian manager, got in one of his fast bits at short field fireworks in the fifth, when he pulled down Stinson's boulder over second. Though he could not recover himself in time to throw Stinson out at first, he did play like a champion and was loudly applauded. Toner did a beautiful piece of work in the sixth when he made a one-hand catch of Ison's drive down to third.

For the Lawmakers, Lipe made a gilt-edged catch of Guiheen's foul fly after a hard run. Titman's work in right was superior.

The game was a pitchers' battle from whereas to amen and neither team was able to do much with the opposing twirler's benders. Each slabit did well and it was a toss up as to who shall win the game.

The Lawmakers missed the great and only Jack Kanzer, "the Hal Chase of the South," who usually hangs out in the vicinity of the bleachers, and hurt his arm sliding bases, and a few days' rest will be necessary to put him in shape for the Danville games.

"Scraper" in a game played first, and he put up a very good game, his errors not being costly ones.

Richmond has not the winning streak that is hard to win with the same stretch in sight, her play for the remainder of the season promises to be the tip-top, best winning variety.

How It Happened.

Richmond tallied in the initial inning. Lipe caught the first ball thrown in his hand, and the Wilmington pike to sack No. 1. Titman sacrificed

BASEBALL BALLOT CONTEST

The vote of the leader in The Times-Dispatch Baseball Voting Contest is just a bit below the 400,000 mark, and will be counted in the office of the contest on Saturday, September 5, 1908.

In addition to the $50 in gold offered by The Times-Dispatch, Manager Michaelbacher, of the Lusk, will give a prize of $50 to the Richmond player getting the second largest vote. This assures a prize for the two highest standing players in the contest, and present indications are that they will both be members of Perry Lipe's Lawmaker aggregation.

The contest closes promptly on Saturday at noon, so don't forget to have all of your ballots in by that hour.

This is how they stand to-day:

WARRENTON SHOW IS BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Ten Thousand Persons See Second Day's Performance.

Lord Golden Wins Special Saddle Class; Keswick, Ridden by Miss Flynn, Takes Ladies' Jumping Class.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WARRENTON, VA., September 3.—The second day of the horse show continued with unabated interest and the horses proved themselves well up and beyond the usual standard. The grandstand was crowded to its great capacity during the entire day, and the crowd is estimated at about 8,000 to 10,000 people, the largest crowd ever gathered here.

The ladies' jumping class, in which Keswick, owned by E. H. Weatherbee and ridden by Miss Flynn, won the blue ribbon, proved the most popular of the day, and the entries were all of the blue ribbon type.

The morning session was filled with the usual exhibit of draft horses, and the evening's exhibits were thoroughly appreciated, and the crowd at all times was most enthusiastic. In many of the classes the decisions were very close, but in every case did they seem to give entire satisfaction to all.

The classes came in on the hour, and the best order and discipline prevailed during the entire two-day's exhibit.

In the pony class the riding of little Jack Gibb was very good, and it is easy to see that this young man will soon belong to the class of famous Virginia riders.

Among the notable visitors to the show was Jim Reitor, known as the "Virginia Flyer." Mr. Reitor has just returned from London, where he won second place in the 100-meter dash, in the Olympic games, losing first place by a bad start.

In the team of matched pairs the two grays exhibited by George Zinn were in every way the winners, and carried the grandstand. In the sporting team class, Mrs. Potts' exhibit was far ahead in everything and easily took the first place.

Horses in harness, four years and under—Amberline James Berkett, blue; W. F. Hale & Sons, red; Tossie, Meetz Bros., red; Buck, Katherine Thompson, yellow.

DANVILLE TAKES ERRORLESS GAME

Otey Hit Hard and Kline Wild. Score Held Down by Fast Fielding.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., September 3.—Big Bill Otey proved an easy mark for the locals to-day, allowing eleven hits for a total of fifteen bases. The Bugs won easily by a score of 6 to 3.

Kline was on the firing line for Danville, and was very wild. Glit-edged support and effectiveness at critical points saved him several stages of the game. He walked eight men and hit two. King walked four times and was hit once, scoring two runs without being credited with a hit.

Reinhart pulled off a pretty double play, unassisted, spearing a hot one off Shaffer's bat, and catching King off the pitch.

Fielding of Doyle, Riggs and Ryan were features for the locals. Shaffer knocked a home run in the ninth inning with one man on base. The score:
